

Civil War Documentation Day

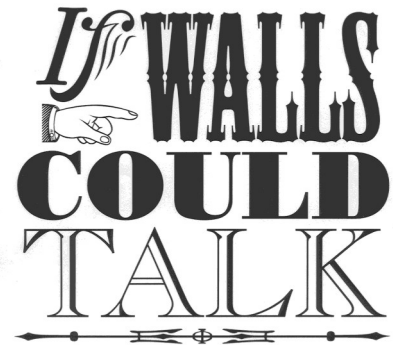

Thursday, September 22, 2011 1–8 pm

Please join us for the “Kickoff” event of our multiyear commemoration of Chester County and the Civil War.

We invite you to bring your family’s Civil War letters, photographs and artifacts to CCHS for documentation and possible inclusion in our October 2012 exhibit, On the Edge of Battle. Information on your memorabilia will be collected and become part of our research archives. Materials will be photographed or scanned. Owner confidentiality will be maintained. No appraisals will be given.

Documentation Day Events

- 1–8pm Documentation of Civil War letters, photographs and artifacts
- 1–4pm Conservator, Kory Berrett will be available to give conservation advice
- 1–8pm Exhibit opening:
If Walls Could Talk : Horticultural Hall, Eyewitness to History
- 5–8pm Light refreshments
- 6–7pm Book Discussion with Dr Sarah Trembanis, Professor of History, Immaculata University on Adam Goodheart’s 1861: The Civil War Awakening
- 1–8pm Ed & Fay Max – A Hero’s Honor Roll – photographs of local soldiers & Chester County enlistment roster database
- 5–8pm Special exhibit of Civil War covers (envelopes) from the collection of Bruce Mowday

All activities free of charge
For more information visit ChesterCoHistorical.org
Chester County Historical Society
225 North High Street
West Chester, PA 19380
RSVP 610-692-4800

On the Edge of Battle is proudly sponsored by DNB First, Pennsylvania Humanities Council, the Dolfinger-McMahon Foundation, Fox Chase Bank Charitable Foundation, Haverford Trust Company, the Chester County Conference and Visitors Bureau Foundation, and Jimmy Duffy Catering